Introduction

1. Considering the necessity of civil development in the Dominion of Carolusburg, His Majesty's Government, through this Act, proposes the creation of a formal law aimed at the progress of the provinces, territories, and dependencies of the Dominion of Carolusburg, with the purpose of promoting civil institutions, strengthening democracy, and defending Carodian sovereignty.

Dominion and Capital

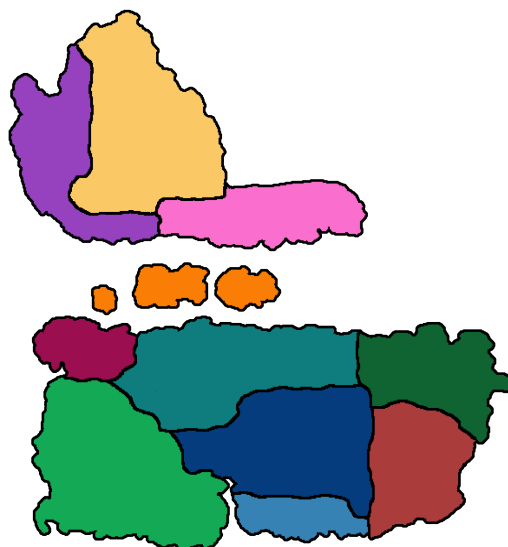

2. The Dominion of Carolusburg and Aurea (in High Sarovian: Pesitpais eui Carolusburg y Aurea), also known as Carodia, or Carodia-Aurea, is a federation of provinces and territories under a federal parliamentary monarchy. According to the Act of Capital, 2024, the federal capital of the Dominion is the City of Carolusburg, which is located in the province of the same name. the Dominion is composed of two nations, Carolusburg proper, largely of Sarovian descent, and Aurea, incorporated into the federation through this act. A citizen of the Dominion of Carolusburg is known as a Carodian or Auro-Carodian (for those living in the Aurean regions within the federation), while a resident of the federal capital (City of Carolusburg) is known as a Carolusburger. The monarch uses the title of King of Carolusburg and Aurea (in High Sarovian: Royo eui do Carolusburg y Aurea), currently Tel Majis Carolus II, while the ceremonial prince is the Dauphin eui Carodia y Aurea (generally used by the same bearer of the title of Prinzip eui Kiev).

Territories may acquire provincial status through parliamentary approval.

5. Dependencies are regions which differ from territories in the sense that they have considerable autonomy and are not under the direct control of the Federal Government, but instead depend on the federation for their protection and potentially on matters of foreign affairs.
