1. Short Title

This Act shall be known as the Sainthood Act in short.

2. Preamble

The Imperial Parliament, acknowledging that the reign of Constantine or Consteynnos IX was the longest and most consequential of any reign of a monarch in the modern history of the New Sarovian Empire, noting that, during his reign, Consteynnos IX took a humble and divided nation and not only unified it, but restored it to greatness, praising his many cultural and military achievements, as well as his quest to introduce democracy to Sarovia on a level never seen before which has led to our current democratic government, and noting in particular that, throughout his reign, he was a pious Stefanist who worked closely with the Church, which eventually crowned him as the first Holy Graalian Emperor, in addition his conversion of many foreign nations, in particular Aurea, to Stefanism, as well as his leadership in reforming the Church into its modern structure and praising his strengthening of the Papal State in his role as Defender of the Faith, which constrained the Church's enemies from attacking Papal territory except for a single occasion in which Stefanist forces were victorious hereby petitions His Holiness the Pope to grant the late Royo y Imperad sainthood, both so that we as Sarovians may remember him with particular fondness, and so that the Church may also remember him as such.

3. Petition

It is clear that Consteynnos IX made great achievements during his life that merit Stefanic sainthood. The precedent for this was set by his ancestor, Consteynnos VI, who was granted posthumous sainthood for the same reason.

Therefore, considering this and the arguments given above, the Imperial Parliament hereby submits this solemn request to His Holiness, Pope Innocent II, that the late Royo y Imperad, Consteynnos IX, be granted sainthood, to be known as Saint Consteynnos tel Bennen, and to be given patronage over whatever field or topic the Church may choose.
