- 2. Introduction Whereas the Sarovian nation finds itself imperiled by terrorism, violence, foreign agitation and attacks; and whereas it is the sacred duty of the Crown and the People to preserve the unity, dignity, and strength of the Empire; and whereas the recent martyrdom of the Honourable Iosefe Atlas has revealed the urgent necessity of renewed vigilance and extraordinary measures; it is therefore necessary to work against all difficulties and hardships to preserve the Sarovian state.

 - d) Appoint special deputies of the Crown for any purpose with extraordinary powers detailed in Letters Patent; and
 - e) Unilaterally create and establish any agency or institution, given that it is confirmed by statute by the repeal of this legislation.
